

The participants “Good evening, we're from Barcelona”(2023) talk about themselves

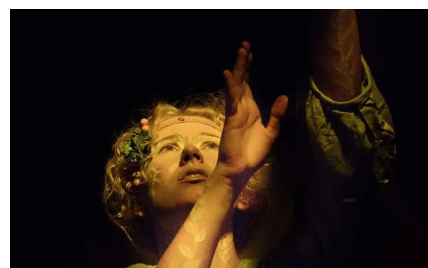

...My name is Mykola Pashyn. I was born in 1992. A native of the city of Korosten, Zhytomyr region. In Ukraine, I studied at the University of internal affairs and worked for the police for some time and then came here to Spain. I work as a sales support at Amazon. I woke up and the first message I read was from my brother: “Wake up, the war has already started”...

...My name is Tkachenko Darya. I was born in Kherson in 1988 and lived in my hometown, studied at the Pedagogical University. When Russia occupied Donetsk, Luhansk and Crimea, my grandmother started talking that Kherson can become the next one after this. I went to Spain. I work as a cook at the Hilton Hotel. On February 24th my sister said that the airports were bombed in Kherson, in Kyiv and a full-scale invasion began”...

...I am Ostap Petrushchak, born in 1990. I was born in the village of Verbiv, Ternopil region. I have been living in Spain since 2003. I grew up here and work as an engineer responsible for one laboratory. On the 24 th I opened the phone, went to Twitter and then the messages started coming from my relatives who is there, what is going on, where to go. I said on the same day that I would not go to work anymore. From the next day I went to the manifestation, and so on”...

...My name is Lyubov Petlyovana. I am 21 years old, I am from Ternopil region. Musician. Violinist. By that time, I had already been living in Barcelona for almost three months. Because before that I had lived in another place. The beginning of the war for me was... The first minutes as I just earned, heard, I was overflowed with maximum anger, such maximum hatred that just a desire to kill, a desire just to go, to take revenge, not to stand still, to do something. I remember I just started calling everyone in the first few minutes. We constantly called each other on the phone”...

...My name is Olena Romaniuk. I was born in Ukraine, in the city of Kryvyi Rih and have been living in Spain for 11 years. I'm an actress, writer and a linguist by education. And on February 24, 2022 I received a call from my mother: “Daughter, you just don't be too scared, the war began”...